To Whom This May Concern:

I am honored to be asked to write this letter of recommendation and personal character for Tyson Wheeler. I have known Tyson for the past two years, as I have been a coach of his, for fall and spring baseball with the Iowa Sticks organization. I have had the opportunity to witness his leadership and athletic achievements, as well as his good character on and off the field. Tyson works hard and is a very good teammate. He is never afraid to take on a challenge. He has the ability to make adjustments mid-stream, whether he is working with baseball related challenges or life situations. He has a confidence level that is admired.

Tyson is a very determined person. His work ethic is second to none. He is willing to go the extra mile to get the job done, tackling all tasks with enthusiasm. He is a motivated individual, always setting high standards and goals for himself. Tyson is well respected by his coaches, and teammates from his high school team at Solon, to the Sticks organization. He possesses personal qualities that have benefited him towards making a difference with others in and around his life and on the field.

Tyson would be a great addition to any team at the next level. If you are seeking a player to recruit with character, dedication, and perseverance, then Tyson is the player you are looking for.

Respectfully,

Eric Toole
